Sri Alam Khan is the 24 year old son of Swara Samrat Ali Akbar Khan. He has been studying sarode with his father since he was seven years old. His first public performance was in 1998 at the Spirit of India Festival that celebrated the Ali Akba College of Music's 30th anniversary in American.

Alam accompanied his father in concerts in India and Europe, performing at sold out performances. In June 2003, Alam received the prestigious Individual Artists Grant from the Marin Council.

Alam is a real gem humble, very gifted and and personally a really sweet guy. . We are pleased to welcome him to our Spring Mini Concert Series here at Arlington Community Church.
