

ETH·NOH·TEC

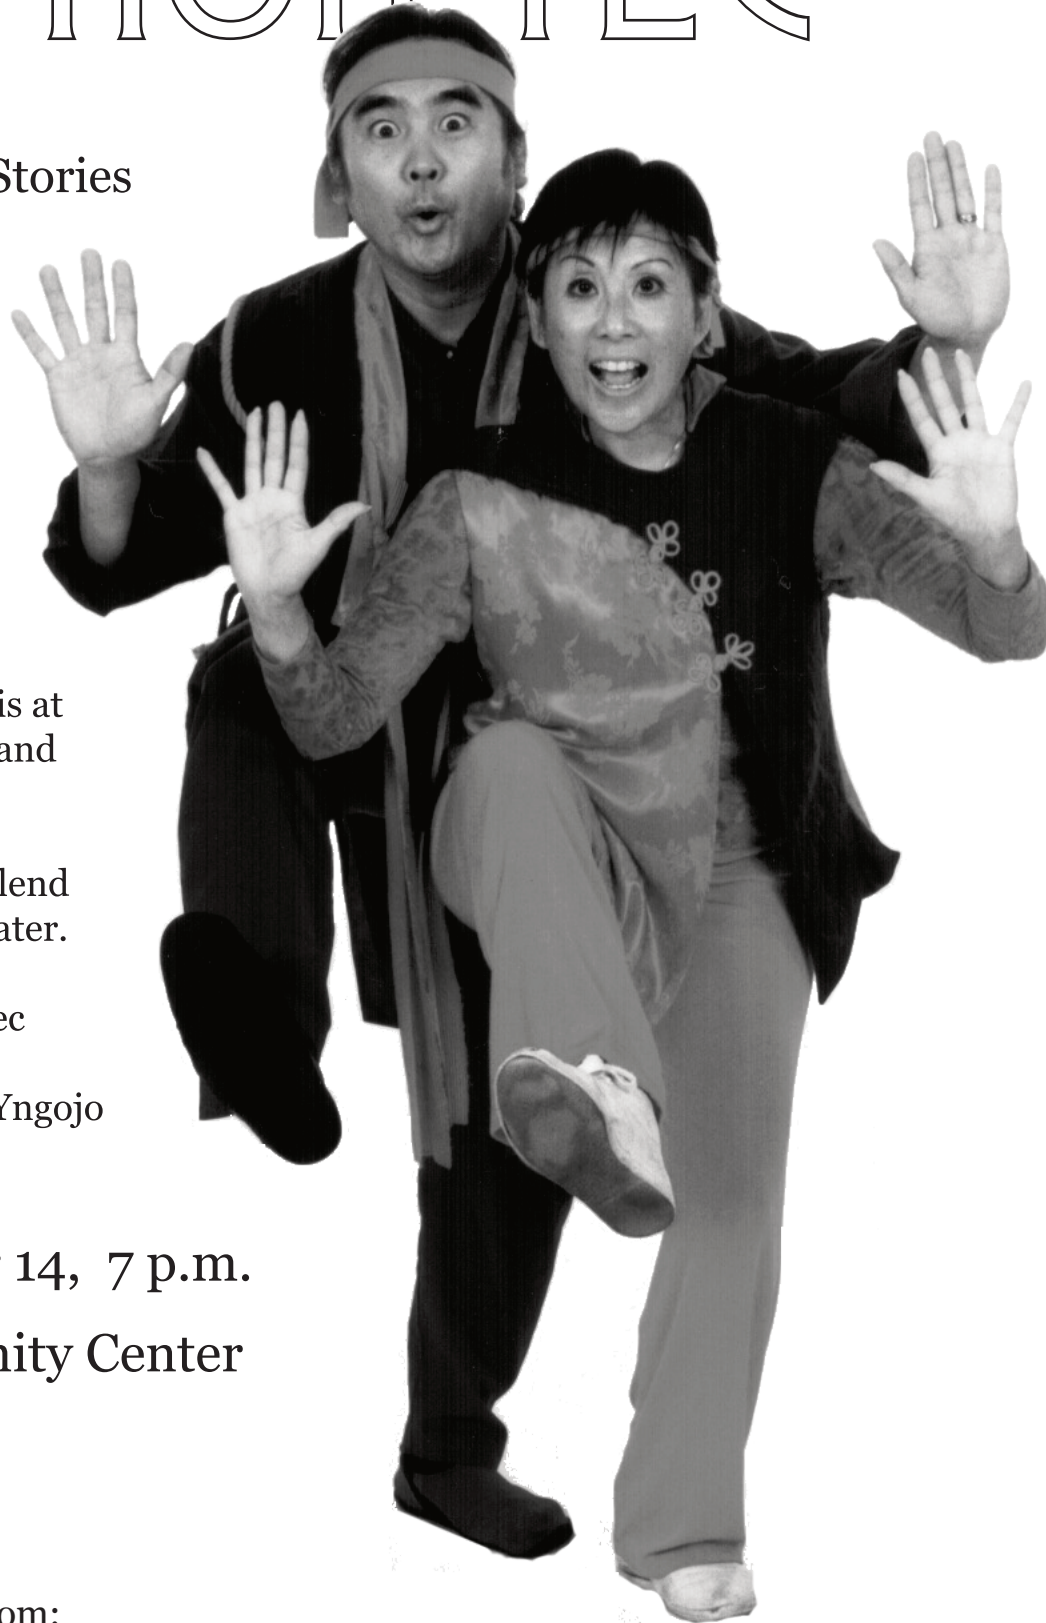

Magical, Spellbinding Stories
Uniting East and West
Celebrating
Peace and Understanding

Eth-Noh-Tec is an interdisciplinary theater that is at once precision choreography and lyrical word-weaving—graceful, playful and poetic. They create an exciting new blend of storytelling and kinetic theater.

Founded in 1982, Eth-Noh-Tec is the combined performance chemistry of Robert Kikuchi-Yngojo and Nancy Wang.

Thursday, December 14, 7 p.m.
Kensington Community Center
59 Arlington Avenue

FREE tickets available only from:
Kensington Library, 61 Arlington Avenue
For all ages.
Phone: 524 3043 <http://cclib.org>

CONTRA COSTA  COUNTY LIBRARY

Brought to you by the Friends of Kensington
Library and the Kensington Community Council