Information Literacy: a series of programs at the

Kensington Library

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY LIBRARY

introductions to

- the library catalog
- databases, including recreational reading
- internet basics

Classes start at 6:55 pm and go to 7:30 pm. Practice time and class materials are available at 6:30pm. Practice time available after class until 7:50 pm.	TWO computer terminals are available. If you want a SEAT, four people can sign up in advance for a seat. 524-3043 On-lookers welcome! As many on-lookers as can fit around the terminals are welcome.

It's a group class---bring a question to share!

Monday September 8	Introduction to computer mouse
Monday September 15	Basic on-line searching
Monday September 22	Introduction to the library catalog: how to check your library record and request items from other branches
Monday September 29	How to set up a free e-mail account
Monday October 6	How to do your own on-line medical research
Monday October 13	How to find articles in back issues of magazines and newspapers on-line
Monday October 20	How to do business/investment research on-line
Monday October 27	How to use the computer mouse
Monday November 3	Basic on-line searching
Monday November 10	Introduction to the library catalog: how to check your library record and request items from other branches
Monday November 17	How to set up a free e-mail account
Monday November 24	How to do your own on-line medical research
Monday December 1	How to find articles in back issues of magazines and newspapers on-line
Monday December 8	How to do on-line business/investment research
More Coming!

This schedule of programs was planned in September 2003. Topics may change to meet the needs of the community. You may call the library for updates on the schedule.

Special Time at the end of the program for new books, recommended books, golden oldie books, and staff recommendations for reading.