

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S EVE IN MERRY OLD KENSINGTON!

Kensington, California--Don't miss the maiden launch of the gala Kensington First Friday Art Walk on June 5 from 6pm to 9pm, offering street musicians, free refreshments at participating businesses on Colusa Circle, as well as talented, local artisans.

Participating merchants include:

Nan Phelps Gallery, 398 Colusa Ave

Treve Johnson, a longtime architecture photographer, showing his personal work of panoramic images featuring dancers with mystery and motion

Kroll Realty, 396 Colusa Ave

Featuring the handmade, natural stonework jewelry of Sahaja Cuvaj

Catharine Hiersoux Gallery, 437 Colusa Ave

Showing the highly acclaimed and magical ceramic works of Catharine Hiersoux and Mila Visser 'tHooft

RabbitEARS, 377 Colusa Ave

Exhibiting local artist Mary Patterson's white rabbit matchbook cover art of American diners

Circle Salon, 404 Colusa Ave

Showing local artist Stephanie Cline's oil canvas and sculptures

Kensington Cobbler, 378 Colusa Ave

Featuring papier-mache masks made by students of Portola Middle School

Post Meridian Restaurant, 1568 Oak View Ave at Colusa Circle

Exhibiting the unique work of Kensington watercolor artist, Cody Turtle

Faces Skin Studio, 371 Colusa Ave

Owner Genevieve Sanders showing her own nature photography