APRIL 2011

A PUBLICATION OF THE KENSINGTON COMMUNITY COUNCIL

VOLUME 68 NUMBER 3

KCC volunteers, above, put on an annual fund raiser so the kids who attend the Kensington After School Program, can do what they do best – from art (bottom right) to yoga (top right), and more.

KCC also sponsors a Summer Day Camp for 200 children each year, adult recreational programs – including yoga and Pilates, it sponsors community events and programs, including the Fall Festival and Parade, a holiday performance for children, the Spring Celebration community fundraiser, the annual meeting of Kensington organizations, eco-talks co-sponsored with the Kensington Library, and walking tours of Kensington neighborhoods, among others. KCC also publishes the Kensington Outlook, which is funded by classified and display advertising, and by the KCC's annual fund drive.

KCC's Spring Celebration to Benefit KASEP

The Kensington Community Council will hold its 23rd Annual Spring Celebration this year on Saturday, April 9th, from 6:30-9:30pm. This is a wonderful opportunity to welcome spring with neighbors and friends, and to help support the many recreational and educational programs that KCC provides for the community.

KCC is a nonprofit organization, which was incorporated in 1960 to provide educational and recreational programs and a neutral forum for community groups. KCC sponsors the Kensington After School Enrichment Program (KASEP) – which offers a wide variety of classes for children in kindergarten through sixth grade throughout the school year. Classes include art, Mandarin language, carpentry, sewing, cooking, music, dance, tennis, and other sports. The fall 2010 session saw a total of 55 classes offered, with an enrollment of 236 students. Approximately 42% of the students at Kensington Hilltop are taking classes with KCC.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Easy Way to Remove Kosel?

Cathie Kosel continues to defame and harass our elected officials as well as our fine chief of police and our CC supervisor, with an unmistakable racist tinge and sexism. The C.O.P. is doing a great job and got rid of a few nasty eight balls who had for years marred the force with quota arrests for traffic infractions while completely ignoring the stuff we hire them for. Is there a mechanism to remove her from office quickly?

Refuse Rate Increase?

To the Editor:

Residents of Kensington recently received a letter from Bay View Refuse stating their current contract to provide garbage pickup is insufficiently profitable due to the unforeseen popularity of smaller, 20-gallon garbage cans. Bay View Refuse is seeking a rate increase despite a contract that extends until 2015.

I have been happy with the service provided by Bay View, and the professionalism of their employees. But it's a simple fact that they made an agreement with our community at the current rates, and it was their decision to agree to a lower rate for the smaller cans.

In my work as a software engineer, I am asked to give estimates for the time and cost necessary to complete projects. I learned early in my career that failing to do this accurately can have significant consequences. I was at one point self-employed and had a fixed bid project that took longer than I expected. Breaking the agreement with my customer was not an option. I felt obligated to put in extra hours without additional pay. After that, I learned to think about unforeseen problems that could arise and worked hard to both consider them in my estimates and find ways to avoid them.

Bay View has been operating for a long time, and they know their business a lot better than we do. They should know what they need to charge to provide the service they agreed to and make a reasonable profit. If, at the time KPPCSD negotiated the agreement, Bay View had told them they wanted to charge more, our community might very well have considered other vendors.

The reason our community agreed to a contract with Bay View in the first place was to lock in a set rate for their service for the duration of the agreement. Why should we tear up that agreement and accept these new, higher rates? How does renegotiating this agreement serve the interests of Kensington?

Contracts such as the one we have with Bay View are the basis of our economic system. I believe we should hold them to our agreement for the duration of the contract. After that, they are welcome to ask for whatever rate they see fit during negotiations. And we may choose to consider bids from other service providers and decide who is best suited to meet our needs.

Isn't that how it's supposed to work?

Very truly yours,
Rodney Paul

Not Looking to be Calmed

To the Editor,

I was disappointed with your coverage of the traffic safety issue along Arlington Ave. (March: Calm the Traffic, Calm the Neighbors). The inclusion of a photo of a young child surveying property damage was not exactly unbiased reporting. Moreover, as a Kensington resident who lives on Arlington Avenue, I am not looking to be calmed. I am looking for real solutions that protect not just the Maguires but all of us who walk along this stretch of Arlington. A few facts and observations I would like to throw into the arena:

The first I heard of this proposal was in the Outlook. I live within the 00-59 stretch of Arlington Ave., and never received any petition from the Maguires or any communication from the city (sic), County, or the KPPCSD. This, despite the fact that the proposed radar sign will be in full view from my house. All of us along this stretch of Arlington deserved better communication. Learning about this after the solar radar system has already been purchased is disappointing.

There is no question all of us are agreed that something must be done to increase the safety along this stretch of the Arlington. For the Maguire's protection, for the protection of all pedestrians, as well as the motorists who drive too aggressively at this curve in the road. I hope we can all keep that in mind. We all want a good solution, and the sooner the better.

A radar sign placed a block before the dangerous area is at best merely a suggestion. As noted in your article, there is research questioning the effectiveness of these speed signs in getting drivers to actually slow down.

I would be very interested in why the radar sign has been proposed as the best solution. Why not permanent concrete barriers/bollards at the curve that would not only be a very strong incentive for drivers to slow down, but would also provide some measure of protection for pedestrians, as well as the McGuires? An article explaining the reasons behind the choice of the radar sign over other seemingly more protective measures would be an article I would love to read in the Outlook.

Sincerely,
Carla Fried

Clarification

This clarification is in reference to the article published in the Dec./Jan. Outlook, titled 'New Directors of KPPCSD Board.' While the facts of the article are accurate, the Outlook wants to emphasize that there was no intent to imply that there was any unethical behavior on the part of Ms. Mari Metcalf.

Bruce Morrow
KCC President

Another Refusenik

Dear Friends,

When I received the recent letter from Bay View Refuse saying essentially that they were in financial straits, I went looking to find out if there had been regular reviews of the Bay View rates, and also, for the terms of the agreement between Kensington and Bay View. Upon reviewing the agreement with Bay View, and a copy of a "Final Report" from an independent firm which reviewed their rates, I found that Bay View was entitled to a small increase, which I understand has been implemented. In particular, I noted that the agreement with Bay View aims to give it a 12% profit margin. So the review found that Bay View was getting a good profit, but was entitled to a small amount more to achieve its targeted profit. In my view, Bay View receives a very generous return. The rumor I have heard from several folks is that owner of Bay View

Connie Andronico's Great Danes Win the Gold – er, ah...Purple

This just in from dog lover and long time Kensington patron, Connie Andronico: "Over the last decade, I've owned a total of six Great Danes and I now reside with three. In February, my 4-yr old black boy, Atlas, received his AKC (American Kennel Club) championship in Albany, Oregon. I had Atlas's late father, Titan, who was also a champion, so I'm quite thrilled to now have two generations of champions... On January 30th, my seven month-old puppy, Priam, a Mantle Great Dane (characterized by solid, broad-brush black and white markings), won Best Puppy at the Golden Gate Kennel Club show at the Cow Palace in Daly City... Purple ribbons are what I strive to get; no monetary awards are given, no marble base plastic trophy is awarded, just a 10-cent ribbon is presented, but I love exhibiting my dogs and they enjoy it too." Congrats, Connie!

Connie Andronico's Great Dane, Atlas, (in black) wins an AKC championship.

Anne Forrest Local Woman of the Year in 14th Assembly District

Neighbors, community groups, and civic leaders were invited by Assembly member Nancy Skinner to submit nominations of women who have gone above and beyond the call of duty to make a significant difference in our communities. Last month, from these nominees, Assemblymember Skinner honored 14 women from the 14th AD. Anne Forrest, vice president of the Kensington Community Council, represented Kensington on this list. Anne runs the school's Math Night and teaches small groups of students who need extra support in either reading or math. Among her achievements leading to this award were two programs she started: "Read Naturally," and the school-wide book swap program. Congratulations, Anne!

Time For Attention to Drainage Infrastructure in Kensington?

Above Shoshana Wechsler's home on Kenyon near Westminster, is a concrete storm drain. Into this drain pour two large pipes with runoff from Highland Avenue, comprised of water from the street, and, at times, from other nearby residences' dishwashers or washing machines. Inside the drain is a third pipe, which receives the water discharged from the other two pipes and runs downhill from Highland to Kenyon, underneath one of Kensington's infamously "unclaimed" paths, which parallels Shoshana's home. Shoshana says the two pipes discharging effluent into the drain are owned by Contra Costa County. (Affixed to the concrete drain, is a medallion from the County Public Works Watershed Program, that says, "Do Not Dump – Drains to Creeks and Bay.") Unfortunately, the third pipe is damaged, and much of the water never gets to a creek or the bay, but instead ends up on Shoshana's patio – and, lacking sandbags – in her kitchen and under her foundation. According to Shoshana, "In the face of vigorous citizen complaints, the County (has) promised to inspect its storm drains on Highland and Kenyon and perform any necessary repairs. The County reiterated that it does not own the Highland-Kenyon path, nor does it own the pipe, but agreed that some entity should acquire title to the land so that improvements can be performed. The County is virtually broke and absolutely uninterested in accepting dedication of the paths and the concomitant responsibility for any associated drainage problems... What's more, it has no effective process in place for mitigating hazards on unassigned land... Supervisor Gioia, Chief Harman, and County reps agree that a Kensington assessment district needs to be formed to finance drainage infrastructure. As for what is to be done now, there (are) no answers." Having similar problems? Please contact Shoshana at swechs@pacbell.net.

The Poetry of a Sylvan Path

A subcommittee of the Kensington Police Protection and Community Service District is exploring potential ownership scenarios for the Kensington paths. According to committee member, Bryce Nesbitt, at last month's meeting a resolution passed to investigate and compare these possible ownership scenarios: 1) No ownership action taken; path ownership remains in limbo – County permits street signs on public right-of-way above and below each path; 2) County accepts dedication; 3) County accepts dedication, on condition of joint use agreement from KPPCSD (e.g., KPPCSD responsible for maintenance); 4) KPPCSD acquires title, either as a transfer from the County or via "quiet title" after County disclaims all ownership interest; 5) County transfers title to contiguous property owners, owners assume property tax, and the County records the (currently unwritten) public travel easement into the deeds; or 6) County transfers title to a suitable non-profit corporation. Meetings are open to the public, and all interested parties, particularly owners of property adjacent to paths, are invited to participate. For more information, contact Bryce at 558-8770.

Breakfast with County Supervisor, John Gioia

Beginning his 13th year as Supervisor, John Gioia sponsored one of his regular monthly breakfasts, this month at The Arlington in Kensington, on Saturday, March 12th. Breakfast was followed by a tour of the Kensington paths, led by Supervisor Gioia, Bryce Nesbitt, and Boy Scout Troop 100.

Supervisor John Gioia, Bryce Nesbitt, residents, and Boy Scout Troop 100 surveyed local paths following John's Breakfast-With-Your-Supervisor at The Arlington

Among the standing room crowd were KPPCSD president, Chuck Toombs, former president, Lyn Wolter, vice-president, Linda Lipscomb and director, Tony Lloyd; GM/COP Greg Harman, Diablo Firesafe Council member, Gil Bendix, Acting Sgt. Kevin Hui, KMAC member, Kim Zvik, KIC President, Melissa Holmes Snyder and KIC member and sign board coordinator, Jaima Roberts, KCC Board member Joan Gallegos, and citizens-about-town, Bryce Nesbitt and Nicki Kaiser.

Preceded by a short update by Supervisor Gioia, topics of the morning's Q & A included pavement striping on the Arlington, curbs mysteriously painted yellow on Colusa Circle, issues of path ownership and liability, possible legalization of chicken husbandry and bee keeping within the County, the emergency notification system, internet sales tax ("Not much that can be done locally about that" - JG); pension issues for public employees ("It's clear that we want to pay our public employees fairly, we also want it to be sustainable and affordable to the citizens. In my opinion, the costs have become unsustainable."); sidewalk displacement and pruning/landscaping ("It's the responsibility of the homeowner - the public works dept. can notify homeowners if an issue is brought to their attention."); and emergency gas shutoff valves.

Supervisor Gioia wanted Kensington residents to know that current available technology only allows the County's Emergency Notification System to automatically call telephone land lines using a reverse 911 directory.

If you want to receive emergency notifications and alerts on your cell phone, you can sign up for this free service at the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office website at www.cws.cccounty.us.

Information on emergency preparedness is available on the Contra Costa Health Services website at www.cchealth.org/topics/emergencies and at Supervisor Gioia's website at <http://www.cocobos.org/gioia>.

Body Found in Kensington Park

On Saturday, March 12, at approximately 10:45am, a report of an unresponsive subject in Kensington Park was received by the Kensington PD. A local transient, white male, 50 years old, with family on Lawson Way, was found lying on a sleeping bag in the clearing just below the picnic area. The subject appeared to have been deceased for about seven hours. The County Coroner's Office and the Kensington PD are investigating the cause of death, at this time assumed to be a homicide. Speaking on behalf of all Kensingtonians, we extend condolences to the family.

Past improvements in the park funded by KCC include the renovation of the Recreation Building (Building E) in 1999; new nets for the tennis courts; $33,000 raised toward installing a new public bathroom in the park (first flush scheduled for October 2011); new water-efficient toilets and better outdoor lighting for the Recreation Building; and the addition of the park address to the signboard across from the library. The KCC pays for the continued maintenance of the Recreation Building - it repainted the exterior in 2008. KCC also contributes $12,000 annually to the KPPCSD for park maintenance.

KCC has also pledged up to $200,000 towards the remodeling of the Community Center. Capital reserves allowing, the improvements will include a new kitchen, refurbished bathrooms, replacement of the heating system, improved drainage around the outside of the building, and opening up of the west wall of the center to the outside garden area.

There exists a great deal of talent in our town, as well as a strong commitment, past and present, to participating in community improvement projects. KCC invites all Kensington residents to get involved. Regularly scheduled meetings are on the first Monday of the month at the Community Center.

Andronico's Market, Marvin Gardens Real Estate, and Mechanics Bank are generously sponsoring this year's event, to be held at the Community Center.

There will be food and drink to enjoy while bidding on silent auction items provided by local residents and businesses. Free entertainment and food will be provided for children from ages three to eleven.

This year's donor list also includes these generous patrons: Arlington Community Church (use of social hall), Arlington Auto Shop (smog checks), Martha Black and John Baker, The Blues Daddies, Alex Brown (tennis birthday party), Dean Burris (Leap Frog Educational Community), Elaine Chu (bracelet & earring set), Patty Coluse (pottery), Dr. Zarrin Ferdowsi (dental services), Jon Forrest (computer help), Barbara Fracchia (a painting), Ruth Frassetto (wine), Dena Fredric (jewelry), Frank Griffio (acupuncture), Joseph Holmes (photographic print), Elizabeth Kavalier (etching), KCC (#1 class of choice/1 week of day camp), Lilikoi Inn, Hawaii (Shai's Bed & Breakfast), Merrill Lynch (financial plan), Nation's (a pie a month), Anne & Doug Stewart (porcelain/wood earrings), and Carla Van Slyke (a painting).

Many of our talented community members have helped support this fundraiser over the years by donating auction items for the event. ...Letters, from Page 2 wishes to sell the company, so wants to get more profits and/or a longer agreement so as to make the company more attractive to a buyer. I have no way of evaluating the merits of those rumors, but I feel the that letter we got from Bay View gives the impression that the company is being left out in the cold and that the agreement not being honored. The documents I read show the opposite to be true.

Like most Kensington residents, I am quite pleased with Bay View's service, and that is why I wanted to review these documents to see if the company is being treated fairly. The documents are also posted at www.kensingtoncalifornia.org/waste-management. (Scroll to the gray box at the bottom of the page for links that will take you to these three relevant documents: 1) KPPCSD Integrated Waste Agreement with Contra Costa County; 2) HF&H Consultants Final Report 2009-10-26; and 3) KPPCSD Franchise Agreement with Bay View Refuse.) I hope that you will take the time to read these documents, and that you will forward them on to your neighbors they can review them for themselves.

Hope this is helpful.
